ORDERS:

The Vice-Chancellor is pleased to order that colleges who have no student admissions in respective courses over a period of 3 years, such college/course be de-affiliated as per conditions prescribed as detailed below.

1. In a college, if any courses/section is not having students admissions in an academic year, then course/section will not be given affiliation for that academic year. But, affiliation will be intact for a period of three years in the college, so as to facilitate the college to admit aspirant students in particular course /section within the above period.
2. If there are no admissions continuously for 3 years in any course/section, then course/section will be automatically de-affiliated from the college.
3. And also, if the college is not having any admissions continuously for 3 academic years, then college will be de-affiliated, in addition to the deficiencies regarding to the affiliation norms.

In addition to the conditions prescribed in affiliated colleges reference manual of the University.

The Vice- Chancellor has further ordered that colleges who have no student admissions from 2012-13, even if they paid affiliation fees to the university, such colleges are deemed to be de-affiliated from the university from 2017-18 onwards. Statement of colleges status regarding student admissions enclosed herewith Annexure-1.

This order be issued subject to ratification of Executive Council.
