Dear Sir/Madam,

I am happy to inform you that the Govt. of Andhra Pradesh and Andhra Pradesh State Council of Higher Education (APSCHE) in partnership with the British Council, India has taken up an initiative to develop English and employability skills among college students in our state. In this context the APSCHE is inviting teachers of colleges to apply for Master Trainer programme (12 days) to cascade training to teachers of colleges who in turn will teach the students.

On behalf of Adikavi Nannaya University, I request the Principals of colleges to encourage lecturers of English to apply before 8th of April for the Master Trainer Programme by visiting APSCHE website – <http://www.apsche.org> . Information/poster regarding the training programme is already posted on our University website.

As this is a programme that benefits large number of students in upgrading their employability skills I request the principals to encourage their teachers to apply in large numbers.

Thanking you

Yours sincerely

(Kotti Sree Ramesh)
